

No one plans on having a legal issue.

Having access to qualified, local legal services can make all the difference.

What kind of help is available?

- Legal Document Review— (up to 6 pages) includes review and critique of IRS letters, contracts, leases, etc.
- Identity Theft and Fraud Assistance— includes advice on what steps to take should you fall victim to identity theft and fraud
- Simple Dispute Resolution— when a simple letter or phone call is likely to settle the dispute
- Online Legal Content and Programs— provides articles and interactive resources, self-help tools and cost-savings assistance

Examples of legal issues

- Bankruptcy, Foreclosure
- Home sale/purchase or Lease Agreement
- Separation or divorce
- Adoption
- Child custody/child support
- Simple will
- Traffic, civil or criminal matters
- Elder Law

Legal matters that are not covered

Consultation is not available for matters pertaining to patents, employment/ work-related concerns, second legal opinions, completing/filing federal or state tax returns, and third-party questions.

How Does It Work?

- This benefit provides an intake, referral and a free consultation with a local attorney for up to 30 minutes in person or via phone.
- Should you retain an attorney beyond this initial consultation most legal services will be offered at a 25% discount off the attorney's normal hourly rate.
- You are responsible for the cost of all services beyond this benefit.